

First Time Interview Questions

Whose opinions do you listen to?

What goals are you currently working on and how will you achieve them?

How do you define customer service?

In 3 words, how would people who know you describe you?

Do you think team work is important and why?

What kind of music do you listen to?

What is your definition for being on time for work?

What interest you specifically in this position and our company

How do you evaluate success for yourself?

Describe your general attitude to work and life. What does "good attitude" mean to you?

What is your current salary/compensation package and what range of compensation are you seeking?

How many hours are you looking to work? What kind of schedule?

Why should we consider you for this position?

Notes: